Premiere Logistics in Logistics

Cambodia is located in the southern portion of the Indochina Peninsula in southeast Asia, the Kingdom of Cambodia.

Cambodian culture and tradition have had a rich varied history dating back many centuries.

Over the years, the people of Cambodia developed a set of unique tradition from the syncretism of indigenous Buddhism and Hinduism.

Cambodians have been raised to respect their culture and are very traditional in their way of life.

Tourists will see the well-mannered Cambodian expressing a friendly "Chumreap Sout" when they meet one.

Cambodia has only 3 major operating airports with commercial flights

• Phnom Penh - is the capital and largest city. It is also the main airport in Cambodia.

• Siem Reap - A city located near the famed ruins of Angkor Wat is the gateway to the Angkor region, and is Cambodia's main destination for tourism.

• Sihanoukville - The largest city in western Cambodia, is known for its rice production and Sihanoukville, a coastal city, is the primary sea port.

• There is a maximum weight being capped by Airport in Cambodia.

SEAPORT

The three main international sea ports in Cambodia are:
SIHANOUKVILLE PORT - The main deep-sea port of Cambodia. The Port of Sihanoukville, situated in the Bay of Kampong Som

PHNOM PENH PORT - The Phnom Penh port is the country's traditional river port, accessible to vessels from the South China Sea through Vietnam. Phnom Penh port is located in the city, on the Sap River some 3-4 km from its junction with the Mekong.

KHOS KONG PORT - Khos Kong is situated near the Thai border and is used by small boats, below 500 dwt. The Khos Kong provincial port is really a system of three ports. Vessels entering Cambodia from Singapore, Malaysia or Thailand call first at Pak Long, on the Gulf of Siam about 15 km from the Thai border, for customs clearance and other formalities.

A population of over 14.6 million, Cambodia is the 70th most populous country in the world. The official religion is Theravada Buddhism, which is practiced by approximately 95% of the Cambodian population.
